VOLUNTEER CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT

As a Many Mothers' volunteer, I understand that I am a representative of the Many Mothers' organization. I understand that what I do directly reflects upon Many Mothers and the integrity of its programs. I understand that I must maintain the privacy and confidentiality of any and all information that pertains to the families that receive service through Many Mothers, the families I serve, as well as the others I may hear about. I recognize the value and sensitivity of confidential information and understand that it is protected by law (HIPAA-Health Insurance Portability & Accountability Act).

I agree to maintain high standards of confidentiality, as required in my role as a volunteer service provider with Many Mothers. I agree to keep all participants' information confidential, for an indefinite period of time, even after I may no longer be volunteering with Many Mothers.

The following is critical to remember;

1. There may be times when a child, individual or family may share information with me that is personal and confidential. My relationship with the child, individual or family, their personal and financial situations and their personal affairs are privileged and confidential information.
2. I will only speak in generalities, being cautious not to talk about specific persons, their homes, their problems, their personal lives, their financial situations nor anything that could identify a family to others, except when reporting to the Many Mothers' staff or at a Volunteer Meeting where confidentiality is respected and maintained by all present.
3. If I believe I have seen or heard something that causes me to be concerned for the health and/or welfare of a child or individual in the home, I will speak to Many Mothers' staff candidly and with the appropriate details to describe the problem. This is the only case where names and addresses may be used.
4. As a volunteer and representative of Many Mothers, I am encouraged to speak about the Many Mothers' programs, its benefits and the pride I take in my service.

I agree to follow the above rules of confidentiality. I understand that failure to do so may result in dismissal as a volunteer of Many Mothers.

VOLUNTEER PLEDGE

I appreciate the fact that Many Mothers is investing in me so that I may become a skilled, confident, in-home support provider for new families. I will make an earnest effort to attend volunteer meetings in order to further my education on empowering new caregivers, parenting issues, and volunteer peer support. In return, I will care for two to three families per year in a volunteer capacity.

I will not seek, nor accept, employment with the families I care for through Many Mothers for a period of one year after the Many Mothers' service ends.

I acknowledge that as a representative of this organization, I will be accountable for my actions, as well as what I say while volunteering. I pledge to uphold and continually enhance the well-earned reputation of Many Mothers. I will be reliably punctual for my family visits, respect the caregivers' opinions and confidentiality, address delicate situations tactfully and with grace, honor cultural differences, and validate the caregivers' situations. The support I offer will enhance the family through my compassion, sincere efforts and nonjudgmental support.

I will stay in contact with Many Mothers by promptly returning phone calls and emails. The staff will treat me with the same courtesy.
